Leading is dependent on connection

Epistle Lesson / Romans 12: 4-6, 9-10

Our Words of instruction today come from the 12th chapter of Paul's Letter to the Romans, as paraphrased in The Message.

Hear these words:

In this way we are like the various parts of a human body. Each part gets its meaning from the body as a whole, not the other way around.

The body we're talking about is Christ's body of chosen people. Each of us finds our meaning and function as a part of his body. But as a chopped-off finger or cut-off toe we wouldn't amount to much, would we?

So since we find ourselves fashioned into all these excellently formed and marvelously functioning parts in Christ's body, let's just go ahead and be what we were made to be, without enviously or pridefully comparing ourselves with each other, or trying to be something we aren't.

Love from the center of who you are; don't fake it. Run for dear life from evil; hold on for dear life to good. Be good friends who love deeply; practice playing second fiddle.

*May God bless us, as we reflect on these words.
Amen.*
