Scripture Lesson / Matthew 6:19-21

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Modern Lesson

Our Modern Lesson is from the book Enemies of the Heart by Andy Stanley

Hear these words:

Greed is fueled by fear. People with greed lodged in their hearts fear that God either can't or won't take care of them.

More to the point, they're afraid that God won't take care of them in the fashion or style in which they want to be cared for. And the gap between what they suspect God might be willing to do and what they want becomes a major source of anxiety.

So greedy people shoulder the burden to acquire and maintain everything they need to provide the sense of security they desire. And therein lies the problem: there's never enough.

May God bless the hearing of these words. Amen.
